Annual Notifications:

Payment Eligibility for Producers:

USDA payments and benefits are subject to producer eligibility and limitation provisions as defined by law. FSA program benefits may not be provided to any producer until the applicable payment eligibility determinations are made. A producer will remain ineligible until all required forms for the specific situation are provided.

Average Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) :

For 2013, there are four qualifying levels for AGI provisions as follows:

- 1) $500,000 Nonfarm Income – If a person or legal entity has average adjusted nonfarm income that exceeds, $500,000, the person or legal entity is ineligible for all commodity, disaster and price support program payments and benefits.
- 2) $750,000 Farm Income – If a person or legal entity has average adjusted farm income that exceeds $750,000, the person or legal entity is ineligible for DCP direct payments only.
- 3) $1,000,000 Nonfarm Income – If a person or legal entity has average adjusted nonfarm income that exceeds $1,000,000, the person or legal entity is ineligible for all conservation program benefits unless at least 66.66 percent of total AGI is average adjusted gross income from farming, ranching or forestry operations.

For the 2013 program year, the three taxable years for AGI will include 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Report Farm Operation Changes

Remember to keep FSA up-to-date on any changes to your operation. If you have purchased, sold or transferred land, formed a new entity, have a new lease, have dropped a lease, or have converted land to a non-ag use, please make certain you report the changes to the office as soon as possible. Please also notify the FSA as soon as possible upon the death of a participant, landowner, or member of a participating entity, or upon changing ownership shares of an entity as it may be necessary to modify contracts for the current year or complete updated eligibility forms. Failure to maintain accurate records with FSA on all land you have an interest in can lead to possible program ineligibility and/or penalties.

FSA Farm Loans Available Due to Drought and Fires

For producers impacted by 2012 drought or fire, the FSA Farm Loan Programs may assist you:

- Direct Operating (OL), Emergency (EM) Loans, and also Guaranteed Operating and Farm Ownership Loans. These loan programs can be considered for refinancing carryover debt, purchasing livestock feed, replacing or repairing fences or structures that were damaged or destroyed by the disaster.
- The Disaster Set-Aside Program allows existing FSA direct borrowers who are unable to make their FSA payment to be considered for a set-aside of the FSA payment to help the borrower recover from the disaster.
- FSA Primary Loan Servicing Programs can be used by existing FSA direct loan borrowers who are unable to make their scheduled payments due to the disaster. These loan servicing options include: rescheduling, reamortization, consolidation, deferral or write-down of the FSA debt.

Beginning Farmer & Rancher Loans

FSA is often referred to as "The Lender of First Opportunity" because of our dedication to assisting beginning farmers. Prioritized funding is available for beginning farmers applying for operating and farm ownership loans. In addition, the Downpayment Loan Program and Land Contract Guarantee Program are exclusively offered to socially disadvantaged (previously known as minority) and beginning farmers.

NEW* A Microloan Program is now available that is designed to help small and family operations, beginning and socially disadvantaged farmers secure loans under $35,000.

Producers interested in applying for an FSA loan should contact their local FSA county office to set up an appointment with the Farm Loan Program staff serving your area.

Attention Hispanic and Women Farmers and Ranchers

If you or someone you know believes the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) has improperly denied you farm loan benefits between 1981 and 2000 because you are Hispanic or female, you may be eligible to apply for compensation. Claims MUST be filed between Sept. 24, 2012 and March 25, 2013 to be considered for cash payment or loan forgiveness. If you think you might be eligible to file a claim, please access the Farmer and Rancher Call Center or Website: 1-888-508-4429 and www.farmerclaims.gov. For guidance, you may contact an attorney or other legal service provider in your community. If you are currently represented by an attorney regarding allegations of discrimination or in a lawsuit claiming discrimination, you should contact your attorney regarding this claims process. USDA cannot provide legal advice.

Remember Conservation Compliance... Before You Expand a Field, Till a New Field, Clear or Drain Land

Please remember in order to receive benefits from USDA, compliance with Highly Erodible Land (HEL) and Wetland Conservation (WC) provisions are required. It is important that you understand the status of land if you plan to participate in any USDA programs.

To be eligible for USDA benefits, all producers planting agricultural commodities on predominantly highly erodible land are required to do so according to the provisions of an approved conservation system.

Be sure to follow tillage, crop residue, and rotation requirements. Status reviews are conducted by the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) to ensure producers follow an approved conservation system on highly erodible land. Violations can lead to possible ineligibility for USDA program benefits.

Reporting Payments for Tax Purposes

CCC-1099-G forms detailing payments issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) or Farm Service Agency (FSA) have been mailed to producers. The annual report of payments on the CCC-1099-G form is a service intended to help FSA customers report taxable income. It is not intended to replace your responsibilities to report to the IRS or Montana Department of Revenue. Remember, payments refunded to FSA are not accounted for on the CCC-1099-G. If FSA payments issued to you total less than $600, you will not receive a CCC-1099-G. Please make certain you verify the accuracy of the payment amounts listed on the CCC-1099-G and account for any refunds before reporting for tax purposes.

County Committee Election Results

Congratulations to all of the newly elected County Committee members. The FSA County Committee members serve to represent the local farmers and ranchers. We would like to thank the Committee members and the voters for taking the time to complete the election ballot. The main reason the FSA County Committee system works well is because of the participation of all of these folks. Thank you!
