Have a question about the Crops Programs in the Farm Bill, also known as PLC / ARC?

Penn State Extension and the Farm Service Agency invite you to learn more about the features of these new programs, the decisions you need to make, and what these decisions could mean for your farm.

Agenda

- Base acre reallocation
- Program crops yield updating
- Key components of PLC, ARC-CO, ARC-IC, and SCO
- How these programs compare
- Exploring a sample county farm scenario
- Accessing and using the on-line decision tools
- Process for sign up
- Questions and Answers

Registration

Registration is free. Just show up and participate. A Penn State Extension Educator and FSA representatives will be on hand to answer your questions.
