PROPERTIES OFFERED TO BEGINNING FARMERS

These properties are being offered for sale to those individuals Farm Service Agency (FSA) considers to be qualified to be beginning farmers or ranchers, and all prevailing claimants in the civil action Pigford vs. Vilsack. Qualified beginning farmers who are claimants will be given first priority consideration in the purchase of this property. IF more than one beginning farmer or rancher who is a prevailing claimant submits an application, priority within this group will be determined by lottery. Qualified beginning farmers or ranchers must be in need of FSA credit assistance either in the form of direct FSA financing, an FSA guaranteed loan, or a participation loan. For other requirements and information on how to qualify as a beginning farmer or rancher, you may contact your local FSA office.

Financing may be available subject to availability of funds. If financing is not available at the time of the sale, the selected applicant will be given the opportunity to lease the property for up to 18 months or until such time the Agency funds become available, whichever comes first.

NO PROPERTIES FOR SALE AT THIS TIME.
