

FSA Photo Contest

Enjoy these images of farming and ranching our FSA staff captured where they live and work. In these photos you'll see your own reflections, showing the dedication, diversity and natural beauty in California agriculture. These are the top winners in our employee photo contest that included over 80 entries.

People in Agriculture: Leslie Morgan, Butte Office – First Place. A charming photo of Leslie's young son watching his Northern California crop duster Grandpa taxi down the runway.

Working for Prosperity: Marianne Morton, Yolo Office – First Place. Yolo County farmer Steve Armstrong and FSA Tech Beth Collier share a smile for the camera at Beth's busy desk.

Farming the Future: Belle Davis, San Joaquin Office – First Place. An incredible close-up on California blue berries, bathed in beads of morning dew.

Agri-Beautiful: Nathan Maragoni, Kern Office
– First Place. A well-kept Kern County Almond orchard is captured, displaying early blooms in the warm sun.
