

“Water in Texas” Workshops

The Texas Dispute Resolution System™, RC&D Councils in South Texas, NRCS, and SWCD’s will be co-sponsoring three “Water in Texas” workshops in December, 2010. These one day water workshops will cover Texas water rights and regulations for both surface water and groundwater, including the latest water law issues and trends affecting landowners, producers, and rural Texans. Participants will also be introduced to the latest USDA agency programs and Texas Rural Mediation Services™, the USDA mediation program for Texas, and how it is applicable to them.
