

Washington is the number one apple growing state in the country. Six out of every ten apples you eat are grown in Washington. Did you know that all apples must be picked by hand because there is no machine able to do that job?

www.fsa.usda.gov/fsakids

USDA Farm Service Agency is an equal opportunity provider & employer.