

Ag Quiz Answers

Q. To keep up with the times, prunes have a new name. What are they called now?

A. Dried plums. – these have powerful antioxidants. Scientists have discovered these can cut your risk of heart disease.

Q. Where did bananas first come from?

A. Bananas first came from Asia.

Q. How long does it take for a hen to produce an egg?

A. About a day. It takes from 24 to 26 hours for a hen to produce an egg. And there are 30 minutes between each egg-producing cycle.

Q. Most pigs live...?

A. In barns. Pigs may take mud baths to cool off on hot days, but they live in nice clean barns.

Q. How do most farmers milk their dairy cows?

A. With a milking machine. On average, cows are milked twice a day – each day. No time off for vacations.

Q. Herbicides are used by farmers to...?

A. Herbicides are chemicals that control weeds so the crops can grow.

Q. You can tell how old a cow is by looking at?

A. Teeth. Just don't try to find a cow dentist!

Q. Which state produces the most maple syrup?

A. Vermont leads the nation in producing maple syrup.

How did you do on the quiz?

