Census of Agriculture Countdown Begins for America’s Farmers and Ranchers

America’s farmers and ranchers will soon have the opportunity to strongly represent agriculture in their communities and industry by taking part in the 2017 Census of Agriculture. Conducted every five years by the U.S. Department of Agriculture’s (USDA) National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS), the census, to be mailed at the end of this year, is a complete count of all U.S. farms, ranches, and those who operate them.

The Census of Agriculture highlights land use and ownership, operator characteristics, production practices, income and expenditures, and other topics. The 2012 Census of Agriculture revealed that over three million farmers operated more than two million farms, spanning over 914 million acres. This was a four percent decrease in the number of U.S. farms from the previous census in 2007. However, agriculture sales, income, and expenses increased between 2007 and 2012. This telling information and thousands of other agriculture statistics are a direct result of responses to the Census of Agriculture.
Producers who are new to farming or did not receive a Census of Agriculture in 2012 still have time to sign up to receive the 2017 Census of Agriculture report form by visiting www.agcensus.usda.gov and clicking on the 'Make Sure You Are Counted' button through June. NASS defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were produced and sold, or normally would have been sold, during the census year (2017).

County Committee Nominations Open

The nomination period for all Farm Service Agency (FSA) County Committees will begin on June 15, 2017. Nomination forms must be postmarked or received in the FSA County Office by August 1, 2017.

County Committees are unique to FSA and allow producers to have a voice in federal farm program implementation at the local level. To be eligible to serve on the FSA county committee, a person must participate in an agency administered program, be eligible to vote in a county committee election and reside in the Local Administrative Area (LAA) where they are nominated. All producers, including women, minority and beginning farmers and ranchers are encouraged to participate in the nomination and election process.

Nominations and elections are set for:

- Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands County – LAA #3 - Farm/ranch land located in Tinian.
- Guam County – LAA #3 - Farm/ranch land located in South Guam, parts of Yona (south of Route 17), Santa Rita, Agat, Umatac, Merizo, Inarajan and Talafofo.
- Hawaii County – LAA #1 - Farm/ranch land located in the Puna and Kau District.
- Honolulu County – LAA #2 - Farm/ranch land located on the Windward side of the island. Starting from the north end of Waimanalo up to the northern tip of Kahuku.

- Maui County – LAA #2 - Farm/ranch land located on the island of Maui, south and south west of Kueluelani Highway, Hana Highway., Haleakala Highway and Kekaulike Avenue. It includes the communities of Kula, Omaopio, Kihei, Pukalani, Ulupalakua, Kanaio, Kahikinui, Kaupo and Kipahulu.
Producers may nominate themselves or others as candidates. Organizations representing minority and women farmers and ranchers may also nominate candidates. To become a nominee, eligible individuals must sign form FSA-669A. The form and more information about county committee elections is available online at: www.fsa.usda.gov/elections.

Elected county committee members serve a three-year term and are responsible for making decisions on FSA disaster, conservation and price support programs, as well as other important federal farm program issues. County committees consist of three members.

Farm Service Agency will mail election ballots to eligible voters beginning November 6, 2017. Ballots are due back in the FSA County Office by mail or in person no later than December 4, 2017. Elected county committee members will take office January 1, 2018.
