The Indiana Farm Service Agency is Hiring
Join our team and help support your farm community!
FSA offers great benefits and a rewarding career where you develop an expertise to assist others.

What does a Program Technician do?
- Works directly with local farmers and landowners.
- Is responsible for carrying out office activities and functions.
- Learns new computer applications and assists producers in receiving program benefits.

What are we looking for in our next hire?
- Team player wanting to learn!
- Basic office skills and record keeping experience.
- Organizational skills.
- Customer service focus.

What do our team members receive?
- Excellent benefits.
- Work life balance programs.
- Competitive pay with scheduled increases.
- Professional growth opportunities.
Make A Career Move That Makes A Difference In Your Community

The Farm Service Agency (FSA) is an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) that serves all farmers and landowners through the delivery of federal agricultural programs.

Check Us Out:
Vacancy announcements are posted on the www.usajobs.gov website. Application packages are completed online.

To find vacancy announcements specific to our agency and your location of interest, type “Farm Service Agency (FSA)” in the keywords field and “Indiana” in the location field.

HireNow
Using our HireNow feature, your application in USA Jobs may be made available for consideration, as additional positions are being filled.

Learn more about FSA at: www.fsa.usda.gov

USDA is an equal opportunity employer, provider, and lender.