

MID-MISSOURI GRAZING CONFERENCE

Thursday, February 25, 2016

Capital Plaza Hotel - 415 W. McCarty - Jefferson City, MO

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Hugh Harvey—Concepts and Considerations When Planning for Ag Estate Succession

Mr. Harvey is an Associate Circuit Judge, Probate Division, 15th Judicial Circuit, Saline County, MO. He will cover key concepts to consider when developing an estate plan to pass assets to the next generation.

Luke Linnenbringer—Grazing Cover Crops and Annual Forages

Luke will discuss the role of annual forage crops in his direct market beef operation in central Missouri. Learn what forage crops he raises for his feed chain and how these forages are grazed to produce beef that is direct marketed off the farm.

Come see the Trade Show beginning at 8:00 a.m.

8:00 a.m.—Registration and vendor time

9:00 a.m.—Morning break-out sessions begin

12:30 p.m.—Lunch and Keynote Speakers

3:30 p.m.—Adjourn

Breaks and vendor time scheduled throughout the day

- High Density Grazing
- Lease Agreements
- Low-Stress Cattle Handling
- Hay/Haylage Production
- Hoop Buildings for Beef Cattle
- Stockpiled Tall Fescue Management
- Utilizing Feedlot Performance Information on the Ranch
- Managing Wildlife on a Production Farm
- Grass-fed and Conventionally Finished Meat Production

Advanced registration due by Feb. 19, 2016: $50.00 individual, $85 couple or $25 student

Late/Door Registration: $85 individual, $120 couple or $35 student Includes: Meal, Refreshments & Proceedings

Name _____

Address _____

City/Zip _____

Telephone _____ e-mail _____

Send to: Cole County SWCD, 1911 Boggs Creek Rd, Jefferson City, MO 65101;

Make Checks Payable To: Cole County SWCD

For more information: Ed Gillmore (ed.gillmore@mo.usda.gov) or Peggy Lemons (peggy.lemons@swcd.mo.gov) at 573-893-5188 ext. 3

<http://extension.missouri.edu/grazingconf/home.aspx>

The University of Missouri is an equal opportunity/ADA institution.

Program Sponsors

NRCS is an equal opportunity provider & employer.

Soil and Water Conservation Districts in Central Missouri