199 Cash Loan Repayments Through APSS (Continued)

--D Retention of CCC Cotton A-1

When processing cotton loan redemptions APSS automatically prints CCC Cotton A-1, which lists bales remaining under that particular loan.

A copy of CCC Cotton A-1 printed when the original loan disbursement is processed shall be retained, but there are no requirements for subsequent copies to be:

- printed at the time a loan redemption is processed, even though this print function is currently automated
- retained in the loan folder.

Subsequent copies of CCC Cotton A-1 may be discarded by the County Office.--*
