Featured Presenters

Karla Klingner Diaz was raised on a family farm near Unionville, Missouri. She has a B.S. in Agriculture from the University of Missouri and a Juris Doctor degree from the University's School of Law. She has worked as both a litigator and transactional attorney in law firms in Missouri and the District of Columbia. She has experience working as a legislative assistant to U.S. Senator Christopher S. Bond advising in the areas of agriculture, water, biotechnology, and education policy. Currently, she is a principal in a Columbia-based firm and has built an agricultural and environmental law practice. She is licensed in both Missouri and the District of Columbia.

Joe Koenen has served as a Farm Management/Agricultural Business Specialist with University of Missouri Extension for over 30 years. He is headquartered in Unionville in the North Central Missouri. He has become well-known throughout the state for his expertise on Missouri Fence Laws and has delivered programs to thousands on that subject. He has had articles published in Missouri Farm Bureau, newspapers and other media across the state. Joe attended the University of Wisconsin-Platteville and received his BS and MS degrees in 1978 and 1980, respectively.

An Invitation

This will be an exciting opportunity to learn from some of the top professionals in Missouri agriculture. The conference will focus on Issues of Owning and Renting Agricultural Land.

This conference is open to anyone seeking to learn more about agricultural risk management. It is designed to be very informative and yet fun too. There will be excellent speakers with strong agricultural backgrounds.

If you have any questions, please call the Extension Center for the site you plan to attend listed on the other side and speak with the Agriculture Business Specialist. We hope you will choose to join us.
