Mr. Bryan P. Hurlburt comes to the Farm Service Agency directly from the Connecticut House of Representatives where he was elected four consecutive times to serve the residents of Ashford, Tolland, and Willington.

During his tenure in the House of Representatives, Bryan served as the Vice Chair of the Environment Committee and the House Co-chair of the Appropriations Subcommittee which oversaw the Department of Agriculture, Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, Department of Economic and Community Development, Department of Labor, among other state agencies. Bryan was widely recognized by agricultural and conservation groups for his efforts to open opportunities for Connecticut grown agriculture.

Prior to being elected to the State House, Bryan served on the staff of the House Majority Leader, Clerk of the Public Health Committee, and Policy Aide to the Speaker of the House. During the course of those years, he was elected twice to serve the residents of Tolland on the Town Council from 2003-2006.

Bryan graduated from the University of Connecticut in 2001. He and his wife, Tracy, and daughter Madelyn, live in Tolland.
