

SIGN-UP UNDERWAY FOR DAIRY DISASTER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Radio Public Service Announcements
(Air beginning December 3, 2007, until further notice)

60-Second PSA:

Dairy producers, did you suffer production losses because of severe weather in recent years?

If so, you may be eligible for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's new Dairy Disaster Assistance Program. Sign-up is underway.

The Dairy Disaster Assistance Program provides benefits to dairy producers for production losses caused by heat waves, blizzards and other natural disasters that occurred between January 1st, 2005, and February 28th, 2007.

To be eligible, a producer's operation must be in a county designated a major disaster or emergency area by the president or declared a natural disaster area by the secretary of agriculture between January 1st, 2005, and February 28th, 2007. Producers with operations in contiguous counties are also eligible.

Other eligibility requirements apply.

Sign-up today for the Dairy Disaster Assistance Program by visiting your local USDA Farm Service Agency Service Center.
