Annie Allen, State Committee Chair

Allen is the Vice President and the fourth generation farming G.M. Allen & Son, Inc., a 97 year old family owned wild blueberry farm and plant. Together the Allen family farms 1200 acres of blueberry land. She also serves on the Black Bear Board of Advisors and the Wild Blueberry Commission of Maine.

Anthony Carroll, State Committee Member

Carroll raises a sixty cow dairy herd and produces corn and hay on Alderwood Farm in Limerick, Maine. Carroll is also the President of the Maine Association of Conservation Districts and Chairman of the York County Soil and Water Board.

Jackie Lundeen, State Committee Member

Lundeen is a retired potato and grain producer from Aroostook County. Lundeen is also a former member of the Maine House of Representatives and served on the Agriculture, Forestry and Conservation Committee.

Sandra Nutting, State Committee Member

Nutting has operated a national recognized Registered Holstein farm with her husband since 1972. In addition to farming, she is active in several organizations, including the Androscoggin/Sagadahoc FSA County Committee, the Maine Farm Bureau, and the National Holstein Association.

Ralph Turner, State Committee Member

Ralph Turner co-owns and operates Laughing Stock Farms, a 12 acre certified organic vegetable farm, in Freeport, Maine. A professional engineer, Turner designed, constructed, and operates the 17,000 square feet of greenhouse on the farm, including the refrigerated storage, irrigation and process equipment within it.
