2010 COC Nomination and Election

Approved by: Deputy Administrator, Field Operations

1 Overview

A Background

COC elections provide farmers and ranchers the opportunity to represent producers in their community by running for a seat on the FSA COC. All farmers and ranchers are encouraged to consider running for 1 of these seats.

Significant emphasis continues to be placed upon improving diversity on COC's. FSA is working diligently to increase the number of socially disadvantaged farmers and ranchers nominated for COC seats. States and counties have actively and successfully been able to place many more socially disadvantaged candidates' names on ballots. These efforts must be continued and expanded to ensure that socially disadvantaged farmers and ranchers have every opportunity to be elected to FSA COC's.

As FSA strives for increased diversity on COC's, FSA must also work to encourage voters to look toward beginning farmers and ranchers as a source for nominees for COC elections. COC's and County Office employees must reach out to beginning farmers and ranchers with information and encouragement to run for a seat on COC. Beginning farmer contacts should include, but not be limited to, County Extension educators and high school and college instructors.

Publicity and outreach efforts must be directed toward socially disadvantaged and beginning, as well as, all farmers and ranchers. Every means must be used to contact community based organizations whose members consist of socially disadvantaged farmers and ranchers, as these organizations have the opportunity to nominate farmers and ranchers for candidacy to COC's.

Not only must COC's and County Office employees encourage producers to submit nominations, they must also strongly encourage all voters to return ballots after having selected the candidate of their choice. For many years, less than 20 percent of all ballots mailed have been voted and returned. On average, 2 million ballots are mailed annually, so there is great opportunity for a candidate to be elected if only a small percentage increase in voted and returned ballots is realized.

D FSA-669A's and COC Slate

Individuals who want to file FSA-669A's may nominate themselves or other eligible candidates. Eligible candidates may be nominated by organizations representing socially disadvantaged farmers and ranchers, or by any eligible producer whose records are administered in the same COC jurisdiction.

FSA-669A has been revised to:

- provide a signature block for individuals or organizations that are using the form to nominate an eligible candidate other than themselves

Note: It is the nominator's responsibility to obtain the nominee's certification and signature before returning FSA-669A to the County Office

There is no required minimum number of eligible nominees for COC's slate, unless no FSA-669A's are filed for LAA's conducting elections. If no FSA-669A's are received, see 15-AO, paragraph 108. A separate FSA-669A must be used for each individual nomination. Names shall not be added to COC slates after the nomination period closes, if at least 1 candidate files an FSA-669A.

There must be at least 1 candidate in each LAA holding an election. However, it is vital to obtain more than 1 nominee so that an alternate is available.
