2013 COC Makeup Election

Approved by: Deputy Administrator, Field Operations

1 2013 COC Makeup Election

A Background

Makeup election procedure has been established for 2013 COC elections. A makeup election differs from the special election process that is in place. Ballots for a:

- makeup election will be prepared by a printing company
- special election are prepared and mailed by the County Office holding the special election according to 15-AO, paragraph 187.

A makeup election is designed to enable a County Office to conduct a new election for 2013 if uncontrollable circumstances occurred during the regular election period, such as, but not limited to the following:

- loss of current member by resignation, removal, or death
- candidate's name is withdrawn, in an election with only 1 candidate.

If these or other circumstances occur during the regular election process, and a new election is required, the County Office may be eligible to hold a makeup election following notification from the State Office. Requests for makeup or special elections must be submitted to DAFO in all instances where a new election is needed because of any irregularity with the 2013 election.

B Purpose

This notice provides County Offices with the calendar for conducting a 2013 makeup election. See 15-AO, paragraph 186 for procedure on the makeup election process.

Note: See Exhibit 1 for the COC makeup election calendar.
