

For: State and County Offices, RSO's, and Compliance Field Offices

Using Postal Explorer Internet Version

Approved by: Acting Deputy Administrator, Management

1 Using the Postal Explorer

A

Background

In January 1999, when U.S. Postal Service (USPS) rates changed, the National Office ordered one Postal Explorer CD-ROM for each State Office. The Postal Explorer is now available on the Internet.

B

Purpose

This notice provides instructions for accessing the Postal Explorer on the Internet.

C

Accessing the Postal Explorer

The Postal Explorer:

- is available on the Internet at "<http://pe.usps.gov>"
- provides access to up-to-date mailing information according to subparagraph D.

D

Publications Available

The Postal Explorer displays and prints publications complete with graphics and charts as follows:

- the Domestic Mail Manual (updated monthly)
- Quick Service Guides
- Customer Support Rulings
- miscellaneous USPS publications
- domestic rate calculators
- postage statements
- postal zone charts and ratefold
- links to additional postal web pages.

Disposal Date March 1, 2000	Distribution State Offices; State Offices relay to County Offices; RSO's; Compliance Field Offices
--	---