1 Overview (Continued)

E Labor Management Obligations

Where exclusive representation exists, bargaining may be requested to the extent allowed by applicable statutes. Where contract language already addresses these policies and procedures for bargaining unit employees, contract language prevails.

2 Eligibility and Effective Dates

A Actions During Open Season

Eligible employees may take the following actions during FEHB open season.

- unregistered employees may enroll
- enrollees may do any of the following:
 - change from 1 plan or option to another
 - change from self-only to self and family
 - elect and waive FEHB-Premium Conversion.

Note: To learn more about Premium Conversion, visit OPM's website at <http://www.opm.gov/insure/health/pretaxfehb/index.asp>.

B Effective Dates of Enrollments and Changes

Use the following table for additional information.

IF there is a...	THEN the effective date is...
premium rate change	January 7, 2007.
change in enrollment
new enrollment	January 7, 2007, if the employee is in a pay status for any part of the previous pay period. Otherwise, enrollment will become effective in the pay period after the first pay period in pay status.

Note: Although new enrollments are not effective until January 7, 2007, employees are subject to current plan changes through January 6, 2007.

Example: Susan Jones was enrolled in Aetna during 2006. She makes an open season change and elects Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Even though her new insurance is not effective until January 7, 2007, she is still subject to any 2007 plan changes in her Aetna policy January 1 through 6, 2007. This includes higher co-pays for doctor visits and prescriptions.

3 2007 FEHB Guides and Individual Plan Brochures

A Guide to FEHB Plans for Federal Civilian Employees

A 2007 FEHB guide provides features of each plan, including the enrollee's share of the bi-weekly premium rates, will be available for employees to review through their servicing personnel office. The 2007 FEHB guide can also be accessed on the internet at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov/FSA/hrdapp?area=home&subject=bnft&topic=hlt-in>.

The 2007 FEHB guide is as follows:

- RI-70-1 for nontemporary employees
- RI-70-8 for temporary employees
- RI-70-10 for visually impaired employees.

B Access to Plans and Guides

All FFAS employees and servicing personnel offices shall download their own electronic copies of FEHB guides and brochures for the 2006 open season from HRD's web site at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov/FSA/hrdapp?area=home&subject=bnft&topic=hlt-in>.

HRD is also requesting that all employees use the NFC's Employee Personal Page (EPP) to make FEHB open season changes and enrollments. Employees can access the EPP at <https://www.nfc.usda.gov>. Refer to Exhibit 1 for more information on EPP.

Note: Employees who do not have access to a computer at work or home may obtain a copy of a FEHB guide or brochure through their appropriate contact listed in either subparagraphs 1 B or C.

C Supervisory Action

Supervisors shall provide RI-70-1 or RI-70-8 to employees who are away from the work site in a nonpay or nonduty status.

D Individual Plan Brochures

After examining the 2007 FEHB guide, employees interested in enrolling or changing plans should review the individual plan brochures for a complete description of benefits to make an informed decision. Employees may access all FEHB brochures at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov/FSA/hrdapp?area=home&subject=bnft&topic=hlt-in>.

Note: Employees:

- currently enrolled in a health plan will receive a 2007 benefit plan brochure directly from their health plan
- who elect a new health insurance plan will receive a personal copy from the new insurance carrier.

Notice PM-2560

4 Employee Action

A Action Required by Employees

Employees must take the following action.

Step	Action
1	Immediately review Exhibit 2, the updated 2007 FEHB Significant Plan Changes, and determine whether to take any further action. Note: Exhibit 2 assists employees in identifying nonparticipating plans and other significant plan changes that may affect them. Employees should review Exhibit 2 to determine whether they need to make a health benefits election or change this open season.
2	Access the NFC's EPP at https://www.nfc.usda.gov to make desired open season elections. Note: Employees should refer to Exhibit 2 for information on obtaining a Personal Identification Number (PIN) and instructions for making open season changes through the EPP.

B Enrollees Who Continue Their Current Enrollment

Employees who want to continue their current enrollment should take no action during this open season. However, enrollees must enroll in a different plan to continue FEHB coverage in 2007, if their plan:

- will not be participating in the FEHB program after December 31, 2006
- dropped an enrollment area having a separate enrollment code.

Note: See Exhibit 2 for a list of plans and codes with significant changes or that are terminating.

C Continuing FEHB Coverage After Retirement

To continue FEHB coverage after retirement, employees must have been continuously enrolled, or covered as a family member, under the FEHB program for either of the following:

- the 5 years immediately before retirement
- if less than 5 years, for all service since the employee was eligible for these benefits unless these requirements are waived.

Note: OPM now has the authority to grant pre-approved waivers to employees retiring in conjunction with a Voluntary Separation Incentive Payment or Voluntary Early Retirement Authority.

Using EPP During FEHB Open Season

A Requesting an EPP PIN

A PIN is required to access EPP. Employees that do not have a PIN should follow the steps outlined below to request a PIN.

Step	Action
1	Access EPP through NFC Home Page at https://www.nfc.usda.gov .
2	Under the Application Launchpad Section, CLICK " Employee Personal Page ". A warning page will be displayed. CLICK " Accept " to continue to EPP.
3	Under the New User? Section, CLICK " Signup ".
