

FEMA Designates 10 West Virginia Counties as a Natural Disaster Area Due to Severe Storms, Flooding, Landslides and Mudslides that occurred April 11 to April 12, 2024 - Belmont, Columbiana, Jefferson, Lawrence, Monroe, and Washington Counties in Ohio are

News Release | Ohio | June 18, 2024

This Presidential disaster declaration allows the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Farm Service Agency (FSA) to extend much-needed emergency credit to producers recovering from natural disasters through emergency loans.

Emergency loans can be used to meet various recovery needs including the replacement of essential items such as equipment or livestock, reorganization of a farming operation, or to refinance certain debts. FSA will review the loans based on the extent of losses, security available, and repayment ability. USDA's FSA offers these loans for losses caused by the severe storms, flooding, landslides and mudslides that occurred on April 11 to April 12, 2024. The deadline for producers in designated primary and contiguous counties to apply for loans is January 24, 2025.
