REQUEST FOR YOUTH LOAN

APPLYING FOR AN FSA YOUTH LOAN

To the Youth Applicant: There are two things you should do before completing this loan application:

1. If you are under 18, either a parent or legal guardian must consent to you getting a loan. Make sure that your parent or legal guardian supports your decision to apply for a Farm Service Agency Youth Loan. Your parent or guardian's signature on this application means only that they agree that you may receive the loan. Unless they co-sign on your loan documents, they are not responsible to repay the loan; repaying this loan is your responsibility.
2. The program requires that you must have a project advisor. Your project advisor must sign the application in the appropriate section. This person can be your 4-H club leader; a county extension agent; a vocational agriculture teacher/FFA Advisor; or other person associated with an organization or program that you are involved in. Keep in mind that whoever you choose as your advisor will be expected to help you plan your project, review your records, help you with problems and answer any questions you might have. Talk with the person you choose to make sure he/she is willing to take on this responsibility and sign your loan application as project advisor.

FSA suggests youth applicants use the available corresponding instructions for the proper completion of this form. The instructions are found on the Internet at <http://tinyurl.com/7u3t38s>. Please ask a parent, guardian, teacher, guidance counselor, or vocational advisor to help you understand the responsibility of applying and receiving a loan.

Assistance is also available from your local FSA office for any part of the application process. FSA can help you complete the requested form(s), explain what information is necessary, and answer any questions you have. Farm Loan Teams located at USDA Service Centers are responsible for processing youth loan applications. You can find the address and telephone number of the nearest Farm Loan Team serving the County where you plan to farm from the Internet at <http://tinyurl.com/7syle36>.

The loan application form asks for statistical information such as your race, ethnicity, and sex information. The Federal Government requests this information to monitor FSA's compliance with Federal laws prohibiting discrimination against applicants; it is not used to evaluate an application. You are encouraged to provide this information; however you are not required to do so.

If you are 18 or older, a credit report is required. When you submit your loan application, you will be asked to pay the credit report fee to FSA. This is not applicable for Youth Loan applicants under 18.

To the Youth Loan Applicant's Parent or Guardian: An FSA Youth Loan is a business transaction intended to provide an opportunity for the applicant to gain life skills and acquire experience in agricultural business and production management. Each applicant's project must be part of an organized and supervised program of work and must produce sufficient income to repay the loan. With your assistance, each applicant will be able to understand what it means to apply for a farm loan, the terms of the loan, and the responsibility of repayment of the loan. Please note that youth loan borrowers have full personal liability for the loan even though they may not be of legal age. A cosigner is required only if it is determined that the applicant cannot meet the repayment or security requirements for the loan request. These requirements will be explained during the application process. If the applicant's plan is realistic and achievable, a cosigner will not be required.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Within 10 calendars days after the date FSA receives your loan application, FSA will send you a letter that will tell you either that your application is complete, or it will tell you what additional information is needed to complete your loan application. If you do not receive this letter within 10 days of the submission of your application, please contact your local FSA office.

L. 95-630): FSA has a right of access to financial records held by financial institutions in connection with providing assistance to you, as well as collecting on loans made to you or guaranteed by the government. Financial records involving your transaction will be available to FSA without further notice or authorization but will not be disclosed or released by this institution to another government Agency or Department without your consent except as required by law.
- B. THE FEDERAL EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT prohibits creditors from discriminating against borrowers on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, marital status, age (provided the borrower has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or a part of the borrower's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the borrower has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.
