

FOREST MANAGEMENT INCENTIVE

USDA Farm Service Agency
Conservation Reserve Program

Fact Sheet
January 2023

Overview

USDA Farm Service Agency's (FSA) Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) is a voluntary program that contracts with agricultural producers so that environmentally sensitive agricultural land is not farmed or ranched, but instead devoted to conservation benefits. CRP participants establish long-term, resource-conserving plant species, such as approved grasses or trees (known as "covers") to control soil erosion, improve water quality, and enhance wildlife habitat. In return, FSA provides participants with rental payments and cost-share assistance.

The 2018 Farm Bill provided for financial assistance to CRP participants with existing tree covers to engage in management activities that improve forest resource condition, promote forest management, and enhance wildlife habitat. Congress authorized up to $12 million in Forest Management Incentive (FMI) funds for this purpose.

CRP FMI Signup

CRP FMI signup began on January 19, 2021, and is ongoing. Signup will continue for as long as CRP authority and CRP FMI funds are available.

CRP FMI Payments

CRP FMI is a payment to eligible CRP participants who have properly completed authorized forest management practice activities, to improve condition of resources, promote forest management, or enhance wildlife habitat.

CRP FMI payments are equal to the lesser of the CRP participant's actual cost to implement the practice or 85% of the NRCS National Payment Scenario rate for the applicable NRCS technical practice.

A CRP participant may be eligible for more than one CRP FMI payment if multiple approved forest management activities are performed according to the conservation plan.

Approved forest management activities must be completed and reported by no later than September 30, 2023, for the CRP participant to receive CRP FMI payment for such activity.

CRP FMI payment is conditional upon completion, and certification on the FSA-848B agreement, of approved forest management activities as provided in the conservation plan.

Total CRP FMI payment is limited to $200,000 per person or entity.
